ANDRIJA ARTUKOVIC

On November 24, 1967, the Seal Beach, California Police and the Orange County Sheriff's Office, Santa Ana, California, were advised that a source who has furnished both reliable and unreliable information in the past has made available information indicating that a plot exists to assassinate Andrija Artukovic, 64B Surfside Colony, Surfside, California.

On November 27, 1967, the above information was personally furnished to Artukovic by a Special Agent of the FBI. Artukovic, who advised that he is retired, indicated no surprise at receiving this information and his immediate reaction was to laugh. He stated that he had been exposed to rumors of plots and threats of this type for many years and indicated he had no idea exactly who might want to have him killed, other than the various pro-Tito forces in the United States. Artukovic expressed his deep appreciation of the FBI's interest in his safety and indicated he would immediately furnish any information he might receive concerning such a plot to the FBI.
